About Learning Commons

The North/South Library Learning Commons opened in May 2022. The Learning Commons is a space for various learning activities such as self-study and group work.

The rooms are equipped with whiteboards and outlets, and can be used for multiple purposes.

Users

- Kyoto University students, faculty and staff
- These spaces are not available to non-KU users (including alumni).

Opening Hours

Weekdays 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

- The opening days and hours are the same as those of the North/South Library.

Drink Policy

- All drinks must be in spill-resistant beverage containers. (e.g., water bottles, aluminum cans with screw lids, plastic bottles, etc.)
- Paper cups without lids and pull-tab cans are not allowed.
- No food is allowed.

Notes on COVID-19

- Please sanitize your hands with alcohol sanitizer at the entrance before use.
- Sanitizing products are available. Please wipe your desk before use.

Other Notes

- Staff go the rounds regularly.
- Please look after your own valuables. Do not leave your bag with valuables in your seat.
- Do not leave your luggage unattended for a long time for the purpose of securing a seat. The number of seats is limited, so please use them appropriately.
- Please leave the room at closing time (5:00 PM). Please make sure that you have all your belongings with you.
